

the vault
PLATINUM

HOT STOCK TIP

Classic Crescent RoyalT band in platinum with 3.8 cts. t.w. emerald and pear diamonds; $21,990; tacori.com

Renaissance band in platinum with 0.95 ct. t.w. diamonds; $5,200; verragio.com

Large Limitless Hoop platinum earrings; $1,400; platinumborn.com

Jade Ruzzo x PGI Tennessee ring in platinum with diamonds; price on request; jaderuzzo.com

Medium Limitless Hoop platinum earrings; $1,150

Wedding band in platinum with 0.3 ct. t.w. diamonds; $2,160; simongjewelry.com

Small Limitless Hoop platinum earrings; $650

Men's wide Staccato hammered platinum wedding ring; $3,800; mejiajewelry.com

Keynes platinum and 1.29 cts. t.w. diamond buckle ring; $12,995; waltersfaith.com

TREND GAME

We're With the BaND

WHITE GOLD HAS long dominated the wedding jewelry industry; now yellow gold is giving it a run for its money, and even rose gold is having a moment. But whatever color the engagement ring, there's no doubt it'll go beautifully with a platinum band. With its bright exterior and celebrated strength, platinum is (literally) a solid choice for an everyday-wear item such as a wedding band. "Platinum is naturally white and dense so can withstand natural wear and tear," says Mollie Good, cofounder and designer of Walters Faith. "We love how platinum pairs with yellow gold and, of course, rose gold as well."

—BRITTANY SIMINITZ

WINNeR'S CIRClE

Every woman needs at least one pair of hoop earrings in her arsenal, and these Platinum Born beauties are both practical and festive. Don't the beads look like little disco balls? Pick the size that works for you: small (0.83 inch wide), great for every day; medium (1.57 inches wide), the perfect nighttime accessory; and large (2.05 inches wide), for when you want to unleash your inner J. Lo. —MELISSA ROSE BERNARDO

THE INDUSTRY AUTHORITY

JCK

SUMMER 2024 / JCKONLINE.COM

VEGAS HOLD 'EM

WE'RE BETTING ON
DIAMONDS. TRUST US:
THEY'RE A SURE THING.

